Cambridge Early Music

Summer schools offering intensively rewarding tuition "second to none" for amateur, student and professional musicians. Professional concerts, congenial company, inspiring music-making, in the beautiful setting of Sidney Sussex College in the historic centre of Cambridge.

31 July - 7 August 2011

THE PARLEY OF INSTRUMENTS

Peter Holman (director, continuo), Mark Caudle (cello, bass viol), Judy Turling (violins, violas), Gail Hennessy (oboes, woodwinds), Philip Thorby (voices)

French Baroque Music

Music for ensemble/solo singers, strings (Baroque bows, gut strings), woodwind, plucked and keyboard continuo. In 2011 we focus on the Grand Siècle, with music by Charpentier, Mondonville, Lully and their contemporaries. Technique classes, talks and an emphasis on stylistic historically-informed performance make this course invaluable to serious amateurs, aspiring professionals, and those new to Baroque performance practice. A=415.

7-13 August 2011

PHILIP THORBY & FRIENDS

including David Hatcher (viols, dance), Jacob Herringman (lutes), Emma Murphy (recorders)

Italian Renaissance Music for Voices & Instruments

Discover the many dimensions of 15th- and 16th-century consort music under the guidance of our exceptionally inspiring tutors. For ensemble singers and players of Renaissance viols, recorders, cornetts, sackbuts, curtals, shawms, lutes etc. at A=440.

"Tremendously enjoyable and inspiring"

"Really friendly atmosphere"

"Definitely the best Baroque orchestra course"

"A wonderful week that exceeded all expectations"

"Absolutely great - I'll be back for sure"
